The Oriental Club is delighted to welcome Members of the Royal Selangor Club when they visit London. The Club, situated in a quiet cul-de-sac close to Bond Street has forty bedrooms, offering a range of accommodation from single rooms to luxury suites. The Dining Room offers a wide range of menu options from the traditional Roast of the Day and Club Classics to more contemporary, seasonal dishes and, of course, the famous and ever popular Oriental Club curries. Breakfast, lunch and dinner are served from Monday to Friday in the Dining Room. The Calcutta Light Horse Bar and Terrace provide an alternative to the Members' Bar and serve food throughout the day, including Oysters, Burgers and Salads. The Calcutta Light Horse Bar is also open on Saturdays offering a hot and cold food menu and a sandwich menu is available on Sundays. All Club rooms and the Courtyard are open to ladies, gentlemen and children over eleven years old. Accommodation may also be reserved, subject to availability and a range of private dining rooms are available.

All Royal Selangor Club Members will be offered a glass of Champagne to welcome them to the Club. I look forward to seeing Members and their guests when they are in London.

Best wishes,
Matthew Rivett,
Club Secretary

For nearly two hundred years, the Oriental Club has been the Central London focal point for those who have lived, worked or travelled in the East and for local Members who value the amenities and service offered by the Club. The Club was founded in 1824 with the Duke of Wellington as the Club's first and only President. Grade I listed Stratford House is one of the most impressive surviving examples of Georgian architecture in this part of London. It offers an elegant Dining Room, spacious Drawing Rooms for relaxing, Bars, Meeting Rooms and a Billiards Room. There is also a tranquil Terrace, an IT Suite, Private Dining Rooms and forty well appointed bedrooms. Its convenient Central London location, close to Bond Street and within easy reach of Canary Wharf and the City, makes it an ideal place for meeting friends and colleagues, for business, fine cuisine or simply time-out from a busy day.
