

A Night to Remember

Introduction Night Shines Spotlight on Club Heritage

6 July 2023

The highly anticipated Introduction Night took place at Ballroom Dataran, as a regular event in the club's calendar. A significant milestone was celebrated as 34 Temporary Members invited their proposers and seconders to join them in commemorating the occasion.

RSC President, Mr. M Jayakumar extended a warm welcome to the new members. In his address, he highlighted the significance of the event as an opportunity for General Committee to engage directly with the members in a large group. Taking advantage of this occasion, the President eagerly shared updates on the ongoing facility upgrades that are currently underway.

"This building has been there for a long, long time. It's got a tired look. Time for us to do something. I took the lead to put up a budget. Went to the Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) and the members approved. The work has started."

Mr. Sivaruben Balasekaran gave an impactful speech, Introduced key committees and welcome the newly inducted members into full membership.

Upgrades underway....

- Female shower room, male and female toilets at Kiara
- The food court at Dataran
- Ballroom and adjacent male and female washrooms

"Certificate of fitness will be issued to Kiara new wing anytime soon"

Other initiatives:

- Introducing the Club's CSR program: Scholarship Scheme for The Children Of RSC Employees
- The presentation of the 5-year strategic plan, which focuses on the development of Kiara, is scheduled to take place at an EGM in late August / early September this year.
- Constitutional review - "Is a living document that needs to be addressed from time to time."
- Optimisation of Machine room revenue
- The Membership committee has been tasked with the responsibility of developing a new membership scheme aimed at attracting individuals below the age of 35, civil servants and additionally, to consider allowing members aged 60 and above to transfer their membership to their family members.

Lt Cdr (R) Datuk Karu Selvaratnam, the guest of honour, a distinguished sports icon and past president, shared his defining moments, offering insights into his personal journey and the club's profound impact on his life.

Mr. Ramis Chandran, the General Manager introduced the Club's Management Team.

The evening featured a delightful Chinese sit-down dinner, accompanied by an enchanting performance by Spec and Emily.

Mr. Chacko Vadaketh, a lawyer who has transitioned into an acting career, showcased his talents as an emcee for the night.

The event's highlight came when the President, VP, and GC members presented the newly inducted Ordinary Members their Membership Cards, symbolising a memorable moment of acceptance. Members relished the opportunity to network and build connections.

The event ended around 10 PM, leaving cherished memories and strengthened the sense of camaraderie.
